The Twentieth Cornucopia Sale
of Fine Arts and Quality Crafts
November 11 -12, 2011

CORNUCOPIA STANDARDS

In order to ensure that the Cornucopia Sale of Fine Arts and Quality Crafts is pleasurable and rewarding for all participants, The Pennfield School has adopted the following standards. We thank you for your adherence to these guidelines.

All work displayed at the Cornucopia Sale of Fine Arts and Quality Crafts must be of professional quality created by the displaying artist. No commercially produced items will be permitted.

Art displayed at the Cornucopia Sale must be the work of a single artist or a two-person collaboration.

The following items will not be permitted in the show: items made with commercially available patterns or molds, any item produced commercially, or any item produced by anyone other than the displaying artist. Representatives and dealers will not be allowed to participate in the show.

The Cornucopia Committee reserves the right to remove any item not disclosed on an artists' application, or any item that does not meet the Cornucopia standards.
